

SAYS HIS WIFE LOVED SKIPPER.

Mrs. Leighton Accused of Meeting Capt. Lockhart Whenever His Ship Was in Port.

SHE MAKES A DENIAL.

Husband in His Action for Divorce Also Declares that She Gave Him Money to the Captain.

Dr. John A. Leighton, suing his wife, Gratitude M. Leighton, for a dissolution of the marriage celebrated twenty-one years ago, says she is infatuated with Capt. William Lockhart of the steamship Prince Edward. He says that she was kept constantly traveling to ports toward which the skipper was making, in order to be where he was, and that she got money from her husband and the father of her five children to give to the skipper.

In substantiation of this he offers a sample letter sent to him by his wife last June from a Maine port. It says in part:

"If you give me $5.00 or $5.00 I will agree to drop out of your life as completely as though you never saw me. I promise never to put foot in New York State or city, nor hold any communication with any one in New York. You will never see nor hear from me again. You can say that I have died in some hospital, for I will be dead to you. If you should wish to marry again, do so, for you may be sure I'll never interfere in any way."

"All I ask of God or man is just to live quietly for the rest of my life, which will be short. It is not fair to let the children grow up and know that they have a wretch of a mother somewhere on earth. We have made such a awful mistake, do let us take this way out of it. I will change my name. I hope you are well and enjoying life. This is a beautiful spot, but too lonely to suit you."

The doctor says that his wife left their summer home at Rye, N. Y., saying she was going to stay at the cottage of a former servant, Mrs. Emma J. Waas, on the coast of Maine, but that she went wherever the Prince Edward was, getting all her mail through Mrs. Waas and sending her letters to Mrs. Waas to be mailed.

When Dr. Leighton sued, Mrs. Leighton, who lives at No. 251 West Twenty-second street, applied through Howe & Hummel for alimony and counsel fees. In her affidavit she states that the doctor has all the aristocratic horses of the Four Hundred on his list of patients and enjoys a practice as a veterinary surgeon and as examiner of all horses in the Police Department and of all horses offered for sale to the city, amounting to $15,000 or $14,000 a year. She denies that she was ever at the Hotel Dufferin, St. John, N. B., or anywhere else with Lockhart.

Actress Gives Latimer Case as Excuse for Assaulting Law Clerk Who Went to Serve Papers.

Mrs. Seymour D. Garrett, formerly an actress who performed at Brighton Beach, now residing at No. 419A Hancock street, Brooklyn, was held for trial in the Court of Special Sessions by Magistrate Dooley in the Adams Street Police Court, Brooklyn, today. The charge was preferred by William H. Striker, a clerk in the law office of J. W. Wernberg.

Striker asserts that he went to serve papers upon Seymour D. Garrett, who was previous to the marriage a boarder in the home of the actress. He alleges that she assaulted him when he tried to approach Mr. Garrett.

Mrs. Garrett's defense was that as she lived near the Latimer house and was afraid of murderous burglar she took Striker for a burglar, mistaking him as he refused to give his name or business and threw him out of the house. But the defense was of no avail.

Charles S. Walsh Suddenly Abandons His Business to Form with His Wife a Vaudeville Team.

Rumor had many versions as to why Charles S. Walsh has abandoned his real estate and coal business at No. 188A Bedford avenue, Brooklyn, but it now develops that he and his pretty wife, who was Miss Ednie Sammis, of the theatrical family of that name, have gone upon the stage and are now playing under assumed names in a vaudeville house up the State.

Walsh and his wife left the city very suddenly last Sunday night and the following day his customers received such a circular letter from the young man, in which he stated that he had retired from business. His reasons were attributed to dull trade, superinduced mainly by the great coal strike.

Temporarily the affairs of his former office, on Reid avenue, have been taken in charge of by his father, A. Stewart Walsh, a former Methodist preacher, who in later years has appeared upon the stump in advocacy of Republican principles. Mr. Walsh is wealthy and owns several large properties in Brooklyn. He has no relish for the stage, however, nor things theatrical.

Coincidentally with the departure of young Walsh—he is but twenty-two and has been married two years—there were reports of difficulties in his real estate business, but these were unfounded. Mr. Frank Pouch, who was represented by young Walsh in many of his real estate affairs, found that none of the August rents had been collected, but that there was a deficiency in the accounts amounting to about $300. Mr. Walsh, however, has taken this matter in hand and said to-day that when his son's office effects are sold and other moneys due him are received the small discrepancy in the accounts will be made good.

"If there is $1 or $500 owing after that," said Mr. Walsh, "to-day, I will personally make good the deficiency."

Young Walsh and his wife are well known among theatrical people in Brooklyn, and appeared last summer in several private theatricals. He and his wife resided with his brother-in-law, Frank N. Sammis, at No. 710 Madison street, Brooklyn.

MOTHER SUES TO GET HER CHILDREN.

Mrs. Lauretta Hawkes, Whose Husband Is Suing for Divorce, Demands Custody of Boy and Girl.

Mrs. Lauretta Hawkes, whose husband, Edward Hawkes, petty officer on the United States cruiser Albany, has brought suit for absolute divorce, to develop that he and his pretty wife, who obtained a writ of habeas corpus for her children.

The writ is directed against Charles I. Thaller and his wife, of No. 426 West Forty-fourth street.

The two children, Annie and William, were taken before Justice Greenbaum this afternoon by Mrs. Thaller. The case was adjourned until to-morrow.

Mrs. Hawkes says she has a good home for the children and is able to support them properly.

Hawkes, in his divorce suit, alleges that he married the defendant on Aug. 10, 1894. He left her temporarily on Jan. 31, 1900, being a member of the crew of the United States cruiser Dixie, which sailed on the following day for England.

Another child, he says, was born during his absence. His children had been in the care of their maternal grandmother, Mrs. Norah Hanfatty, but his wife for some reason or other took them away. He subsequently recovered them and placed them in charge of Mr. and Mrs. Thaller, who had been friends of both of them, and Mrs. Hawkes had access to them whenever she chose. He claims she is not a fit or proper person to bring up the children.

Smith & Engel are counsel for Hawkes. While his wife is represented by the Legal Aid Society.

The mother in parting with her babe wept pitifully. The couple will have to remain in jail pending their trial. They cannot get bail.

TROOPS AID IN EXPELLING SISTERS.

French Women Throw Themselves in Front of Horses to Prevent Entrance to Convent School.

BREST, France, Aug. 7.—Exciting scenes occurred to-day during the expulsion of a number of sisters from their school at Landerneau, near here. A special train conveyed detachments of soldiers to Landerneau, where a body of gendarmes had been mobilized already. A large crowd assembled at the school and surrounded the soldiers in the square in front of the school.

When the Commissary of Police arrived, accompanied by a locksmith, the people protested vigorously, shouting: "Long live the sisters and liberty!" "Down with the Ministry!"

Women threw themselves to the ground in front of the horses of the gendarmes. The Commissary ordered the sisters to open the school door. They refused, and the locksmith picked the lock and broke windows amid the denunciations of the crowd.

The Commissary ordered the sisters to leave the school, which they did, leaning on the arms of the townspeople, and accompanied by the priests and thousands of people they marched to a church, where they sang a hymn. A large crowd followed the gendarmes to the railway station, shouting "Death to the locksmith!" The man was protected by the military.

FIRE ISLAND, N. Y., Aug. 7.—Two catboats, Gov. Hill, of Amityville, Capt. Ketcham, with a party of six persons on board, was capsized in the bay to-day by a northwest squall. The party consisted of G. J. Rice, of New York; his wife and two children and his two brothers.

They were all clinging to the upturned boat's keel when a fishing sloop of Patchogue went to their assistance and succeeded in picking them all up.

Capt. Dease and the Fire Island life-saving crew were busy with a large schooner that needed assistance at the time, but immediately went to the aid of the party in the catboat.

The rescued persons were taken to the life-saving station and supplied with dry clothing, after which they left for Amityville.

The catboat was righted and floated. She sustained no damage.

SHOT WIFE; KILLED HIMSELF

Double Tragedy Up-State Due to Man's Jealousy.

SENECA FALLS, N. Y., Aug. 7.—Charles Shandley shot and mortally wounded his wife and killed himself to-day. The shooting was without cause, except that the man was insanely jealous of his wife, who so far as can be learned, never gave him any cause.

Mrs. Shandley kept boarders to support the family, Shandley doing little or nothing.

Dr. Koch has hundreds of instances on record in which persons have been cured who were confirmed consumptives. Some of their cases were pronounced incurable by the best doctors, yet they have regained their health through his wonderful discovery.

The only New York office of the original Koch Lung Cure is at 48 West 22d street. It is under the direct supervision of Dr. Koch, who will personally see patients.

The medicine which Dr. Koch administers does not go to the lungs, but directly to the lungs. In this way he removes the cause upon which the disease depends.
